Description

These 18th-century antique biscuit figurines depict two exquisite musicians. The workmanship and costumes suggest that they are of French origin. The faces of the figures are finely detailed, showcasing the high quality of the hand-painted craftsmanship, with enamel atop the biscuit. Each figure is 18 cm in height. The figurines are in excellent antique condition, with no visible signs of damage, which is remarkable for pieces of this age. Some gilding has worn away in certain areas, and there are visible traces of fairing – both characteristics typical of 18th-century porcelain. Please carefully regard all photos. The item will be sent with full tracking and insurance. Please note that shipping costs include labour, packing and postage.
