Description

This is an antique decorative umbrella rack. An English, painted cast iron hallway stick stand, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. Ornate and distinctive, with country house appeal. Displaying a desirable aged patina throughout. Painted cast iron presents a lightly weathered appearance. Of useful proportion for the entrance hall - ideal for wet umbrellas. Quality pierced detail, with foliate motif fretwork accentuating the backrest. Benefits from a removable cast iron drip tray within the oval plinth base. This is a charming antique decorative umbrella rack, of good proportion and pleasingly patinated finish. Delivered polished and ready for the hallway.
