Description

A superb oak lowboy dating from the late 18th century. The top has a moulded edge and a beautifully cross banded border. It stands on cabriole legs terminating in pad feet with an arrangement of three drawers around a central shaped frieze. Each drawer has a small brass plate handle and a crossbanded border. It is in good original condition with a beautiful rich patina. There are some signs of age and use, a few marks and stains on the top but the table is strong and sturdy and the drawers open well. There have been a couple of repairs to the tips of the feet and a couple of repairs to the cross banding but nothing detrimental. It has been cleaned and polished and is ready for use.
