Description

Very unusual exceptionally tall regency style breakfront wardrobe in mahogany with contrasting door panels. The handle, door trim & hinges are all brass and extend the doors so they open fully round to the sides of the piece. Inside the fittings are all brass, there is a central hanging rail alongside many hooks, all with full length hanging space suitable even for the longest dresses whilst still having space for floor storage. The pelmet and base come apart for transport, but the central section is one piece. *Includes delivery within 100 miles of us in Warwickshire (CV47)
