Description

An early 19th century wooden snuff box in the shape of a shoe, with sliding cover, brass pique work lace eyelets and studs to the heel. This must have been painted originally as it still bears remnants of dark green paint in places. A lovely little snuff box dating from c1800 of beautiful rich colour and in very good condition. The cover has a pin to prevent it sliding open by accident. The snuff box measures approximately 12.5cm long and 3.8cm high.
