Description

A lovely Regency toilet mirror in Mahogany with tulipwood crossbanding. The oval hinged mirror is raised on a serpentine platform base with three drawers each having the original handle and bone escutcheons, culminating on bracket feet. This is an unrestored piece in very good condition with no losses. There is a natural fade to the wood which is lovely and we were not inclined to re-polish. The mirror plate itself has been replaced, and apart from this, it is totally original. This is available for collection from our Emporium or please contact us to review delivery options. Payment by bank transfer, PayPal or card via telephone.
