Description

Country House Antique Georgian Side Table / Tea Table This stunning late 18th Century Country House Antique Georgian Side Table / Tea Table dates from circa, 1790. It comes with wonderful genuine charm and character. It has a beautifully figured top that opens to double its size if required using a gate leg mechanism to support the top when opened. This sits above a figured frieze with central drawer, having a brass swan neck handle. This delightful antique table stands on four elegant cabriole legs with pad feet. The mahogany has aged to a warm shade with a striking grain, good patina, is in very good condition and has been beautifully cleaned using a traditional form of furniture wax finishing.
