Description

Superb early 19th century Georgian Scottish mahogany hanging corner cabinet of a fantastic design. The door with beautiful design curved glazing bars in ebony and boxwood. The corner cabinet is cross banded and inlaid with tulipwood and boxwood line stringing. Nice shape base moulding and top cornice. 3 fixed shelves inside. The corner cabinet is in very good condition apart from the lock is broken and it has probably had a couple of historic glass panes replaced. It is a stunning colour with waxed finish. SIZE; 22" square, 22" across the front and 46" high CIRCA; 1800
