Description

A beautifully proportioned small-size bracket clock with two subsidiary dials and verge escapement. The brass dial 8-day movement strikes the hours on a single bell and has two subsidiary dials in the arch for strike/silent and rise/fall with the maker's name engraved on a cartouche at the top of the dial. A twin fusee movement with the original verge escapement and a short bob pendulum, striking the hours on a single bell with the added feature of a pull repeat. The fully engraved backplate is beautifully engraved with floral swags and the maker's signature. The classic style of ebonised case for the period, with a curved bell top and ebony frets to the front glazed door. Brass centre carrying handle and ebonised feet. Serviced and guaranteed for 3 years. Height: 15? or 38cm (Handle up) CIRCA. 1735 Provenance: Private collection – U.K. *This clock is delivered and set up for free within the UK.
