Description

An outstanding French three panel photograph or picture frame having been meticulously and professionally restored to its former glory. Dating to c.1900, the bronze is smothered in gold and the pale taupe coloured taffeta is mounted with delightful gilded bronze mounts. The glazed panels protect the silk taffeta and each of the six apertures are frames in gilded bronze. A superb and highly sought-after centrepiece in excellent condition with an overall measurement of 16 1/2" wide x 13" tall x 1/2" thick. The large aperture has a diameter measuring 3 3/4" and the smaller ones, 2 1/4". Item: 44227 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From the UK
