Description

A Fine Victorian Carriage Clock c1860 ~~ Excellent original condition throughout ~~ This is an original Victorian carriage clock dated to around 1850. It has a traditional polished brass case with a shaped fold down handle. It is in excellent condition, bright and clean yet showing the patina which you would expect from a clock of this age. The movement is of very high quality, runs for a full 8 days and keeps good time. The original enamel dial does have an extremely small faint hairline in the bottom right hand corner which is hardly detectable to the naked eye but in no way does this detract from what is a fabulous clock. It comes with its original box. All of the glass panels are original and are perfect with no cracks or chips. The movement is in excellent clean and running condition having just undergone a complete and comprehensive overhaul by Alan Williams of Plymouth Clocks who is a fellow of the British Horological Institute so you can be assured that this clock will give trouble free service for many many years before requiring any further attention. The platform escapement is original. A beautiful genuine victorian carriage clock in outstanding co...
