Description

This is an elegant antique Irish Regency Period mahogany & parcel-gilt twin pillar dining table that can comfortably seat up to eighteen people and is Circa 1820 in date. The table top is of beautiful flame mahogany and there is no mistaking the fine craftsmanship of this handsome dining table which is certain to become a treasured addition to your furniture collection, and a talking point with guests at meal times. The table is of rectangular form with rounded corners and a moulded parcel-gilt edge. It is raised on twin acanthus-detailed pedestals, each with parcel-gilt decoration, with outswept supports terminating in lion's paw feet and brass castors. The table has one large leaf that can be added or removed as required to suit the occasion. The chairs shown in the photographs are available if required. It is a very impressive dining table which is sure to contribute to successful dinner parties.
