Description

Victorian mahogany Wellington chest This Victorian mahogany Wellington chest was made circa 1865. There are many different grades of this type of chest. Our example would be classed as at the top end of the grading. Interestingly this has the rare feature that the keyhole is hidden in the carved corbel in the locking bar, with a cover for when the key is not in place. I have never seen this feature before, and I have handled and seen many Wellington chests in my 47 years of trading. There are 8 graduated drawers, all fitted with the original turned knob handles. Antique Wellington chests are fabulous pieces of furniture for the home, they are so versatile as they can be placed in so locations. Imagine the pleasure ownership of this Victorian Wellington will give you, and the interest it will generate from your family and friends. 66cms wide 26ins 41cms deep 16ins 128.5cms high 50.5ins Whilst we take care in measuring the sizes can be slightly different Delivery UK mainland FREE Other destinations please contact us, and we will get a quote.
