Description

Fabulous 18th.c. oak refectory dining table c.1740. Simple planked top, big enough to seat three down each side, with slim cleats at the ends. Superb base with a slim drawer at each end. Note the unusual shaped detail to the side rails to accommodate the drawer runners. Raised on turned and tapering column legs with a shaped and chamfered detail at the corners of the blocks top and bottom. The legs are joined with a long centre stretcher making it easier to get chairs in at the sides. Excellent condition and lovely original colour. Cleaned and waxed in our workshops.
