Description

Victorian mahogany serpentine chest This amazing Victorian mahogany serpentine chest was made circa 1870. It is a very rare piece that would have been made for a very important home in the 19thc. We have been fortunate to purchase this from a very important country home near the River Test. It is of a bold serpentine shape with fine tapering columns to each side of the drawers. The mahogany on the drawer fronts is fiery with lots of fantastic figuring to the grain. Having a pair of half width drawers to the top and a further 3 full width graduated drawers under. It would take a craftsman at the top of his profession to be able to make a piece of furniture to this standard. The amount of storage this Victorian chest will provide is incredible. Imagine waking each morning seeing this in your bedroom and the pleasure owning it will give you. 136cms wide 53 1/2ins 56cms deep 22ins 108cms high 42 1/2ins Whilst we take care in measuring the sizes can be slightly different Delivery UK mainland FREE Other destinations please contact us, and we will get a quote.
