Description

Country Mahogany Extending Antique Wind-Out Dining Table. This Victorian Mahogany Extending Antique Wind-Out Dining Table dates from ca. 1880, is extendable and has a definite country appeal. It consists of one central removable leaf with moulded edges and rounded corners and operates using a winding mechanism complete with handle. It stands on beautifully turned reeded legs finished with brown porcelain castors. This dining table is a genuine piece of antique furniture with character marks and old repairs consistent with age, adding to its character and authenticity. The mahogany is a warm shade with a good patina, is in good condition and has been beautifully cleaned using a traditional form of wax finishing.
