Description

A superb quality early 20th century French bureau de dame in the manner of Bernard Van Risenburgh. This is a faithful copy, the original of which can be found in the Palace of Versailles. Of fine construction with exquisite kingwood and tulip wood veneers onto a solid oak carcass. Decorated throughout with bois-de-bout marquetry inlay. Further embellished with lavish crisply cast ormolu mounts. Of bombe form and standing on elegant cabriole legs. The fall (lockable, key supplied) opens to reveal a fitted interior complete with a sumptuous leather writing surface. Offered for sale in excellent condition, ready to go straight into the home.
