Description

Early C19th patinated brass classical column table lamp. Interesting classical design table lamp having a well-detailed cast shaft with spiral decoration, featuring swans or birds designs with floral interspersed motifs .Resonant of the ancient spirally-decorated marble victory columns of the Roman emperors Trajan and Marcus Aurelius , and latterly the Emperor Napoleon Bonaparte. The cast stylised corinthian capital top with cast leaf and caulicoli detail . The shaft onto a chased detail ring base mounted upon a stepped block plinth base . The sides each decorated with cast reliefs of classical design, two featuring Ancient Greek or Roman female musicians seated in Klismos chairs . A further cast band of classical leaf motif decoration below. The whole mounted upon an ebonised wooden slip base . An impressive and rare model classical column lamp base with an atmospherically patinated and aged surface and colour . H (including fitting) 23" W 5" D 5" England or France c.1830
