Description

Early Victorian Revolving Height Adjustable Stool. A charming piano stool or dressing table stool. We bring to you this fine example of an Antique Victorian Mahogany revolving piano stool on a wooden height adjustable screw mechanism believed to be made around C1840. This fine revolving stool is in fantastic original condition and has been sympathetically restored, rebuilt and re-upholstered making it perfect for any piano or even as a dressing stool. This good-looking stool has its original polish throughout complete with its lovely lightly faded original colour showing patina and character which we have just enhanced with a revive and wax. Unusually this piano stool has a sprung seat which is very comfortable to sit on for long periods of time. The pad is raised on a large 50mm diameter finely cut wooden screw thread which turns effortlessly to infinitely adjust the stools height. The seat-pad has been re-upholstered, having all of the springs repositioned with new padding, all finished with a brand new full grain aniline leather in grey with a brass studded edge to complement. Underneath the seat-pad is a lovely highly polished brass decorative collar which descend...
