Description

A large Victorian pine farmhouse dining table with a planked top standing on turned legs. The planked top is a lovely warm colour with nice wide boards and an attractive aged patina. It is a good large size, seating 8-10 comfortably, and a good practical height to sit at with ample leg clearance of 24" (61cm) all the way around. It is in good condition for its age. There are signs of use and plenty of old knocks and marks which have all added to the patina but nothing detrimental and no major damages. There are some signs of old worm which have all been treated as a precaution and haven't affected the table structurally or aesthetically. The table has had some metal strengthening brackets added below the frame at some point and the table is strong and sturdy. It has been cleaned and gently waxed and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
