Description

This is an antique occasional table. An English, mahogany tilt-top table with birdcage mount, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1800. Presents beautifully with a versatile, fully articulated top. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order. Select stocks present fine grain interest throughout. Rich caramel hues beam beneath a quality wax polish finish. Birdcage mount offers 360 degrees of rotation, ideal for serving. Tilt top mechanism held securely with a circular brass clasp. Supported by a stout baluster column with turned collars. Stands upon a trio of cabriole legs with broad knees, terminating in pad feet. This is an attractive antique occasional table, with an appealing birdcage mount, which offers a useful rotating top. The tilting mechanism adds further versatility. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
