Description

This is an antique gentleman's cribbage case. An English, rosewood and brass card game box, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880. Beautifully presented case for spontaneous hands of cribbage. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order. Select stocks present superb grain interest and deep caramel hues. Striking bleached pearwood and boxwood inlay to the counter board top. Lid held closed with a pair of rotating brass clasps. Opens to reveal two decks of playing cards and counter compartment. Dressed with attractive marbled paper to the lid interior and card compartments. Standing upon a quartet of brass ball feet with warm golden tones. This is a delightful antique gentleman's cribbage case, with superb figuring and the cards and counters required to play a hand. Delivered waxed, polished and ready to enjoy.
