Description

Gorgeous & Practical Walnut Antique Triple Wardrobe - c1900 Exceptional Walnut Triple Wardrobe. This piece ticks all the boxes and at over 100 years old shows just how good the original build quality was at the time. The timber used throughout is of the highest order and the resultant piece of furniture looks fantastic. The central section is flanked by twin hanging cupboards. Each of these outers benefits from original hooks and rails. The doors are retained by original brass stays and open inward to allow the twin bevelled mirrors to reflect against each other and provide a great all round view of ones outfit! The central third consists of a '2 over 3' drawer layout in the lower section. This sits below a useful mirror backed vanity shelf above which twin partially glazed doors open to reveal a pair of linen press type slides. The doors enjoy bevelled glazing and are fitted internally with original miniature curtain pole retainers allowing the fitment of a fabric insert should you choose to customise the wardrobe to match with an existing room colour scheme. Externally the piece displays fine carving and wonderful burr walnut graining. The whole sits upon a conti...
