Description

This Oak Revolving & Tilting Office Desk Chair is just the thing for a home office. Being fully adjustable for height to make sure you are sitting in the correct position for working comfort, with a sprung reclining mechanism as well as the opportunity to revolve around, ensure that you are fully looked after. The lovely light warm tone of the oak works so well with the faded antiqued tan leather seat. Standing on brass castors for ease of moving. There is a slight bit of play in the mechanism, to be expected of a chair of this age, but all works without any problem.
