Description

Even by our standards this is a rare jewel. Found in a little old grocery shop that had been in business for over a hundred years, hidden away in the basement. Made from solid elm, it was a tea dispensary. The lift up lid conceals a copper insert to hold the tea leaves, keeping them fresh. The front has 5 drawers in the front. The elm has a stunning grain to it, giving this cabinet a beautiful finish. Still in good condition.
