This is a fine quality pair of antique English Georgian pair of console tables, constructed from solid mahogany, circa 1800, in excellent condition. Constructed with top quality solid mahogany tops, they benefit from a stunning single-plank thumb moulded top (a sign of quality). Below, the tables are decorated with a fine reed-moulded frieze, with curved "D" ends, raised on square tapering legs, terminating on their original brass castors. This Georgian pair of console tables boast a stunning deep rich red-brown mahogany colour, having been cleaned and professionally French polished by hand in our workshop. They possess a fantastic colour and patination; this can only be achieved through age and years of care and cl...
