Description

A small and unusual antique Victorian rosewood side table dating from circa 1860. Originally used as a prie dieu table (prayer table) but now makes a wonderful hall table or lamp/telephone table. In beautifully figured rosewood with turned legs and arch shaped feet, it features a drop flap table and newly upholstered kneeler and panelled side. To one side is a long capacious secret drawer. A really attractive good quality piece in good condition with good warm patina that would grace any room. Construction/Wood: Rosewood Condition Report: Good condition with good colour and patina. Wear and marks commensurate with age. Newly reupholstered. Dimensions: Height: 74cm Width: 49cm Depth Open: 35cm Depth Closed: 24cm Drawer Internal: 37cm Deep x 14cm Wide x 4cm High
