Description

A mid C19th stool with leather hide seat, walnut frame and "Cope & Collinson" castors. This stool features a recently reupholstered seat finished maroon coloured hand dyed leather hide, deep buttoned and finished with antique brass tack trim. Raised on Gillows type legs in well figured walnut. On water-gilt, "Cope & Collision Patent" stamped castors. Dating from the mid C19th. Cope & Collinson are reknown for producing the finest brass hardware, and regularly used on Gillows furniture. This stool is of the highest quality and I'm comfortable saying it is very much in the manner of Gillows. The seat has recently been reupholstered in the traditional method, using hand-dyed leather hide. A stunning stool in excellent condition and ready for use. Dimensions: This stool measures approximately 48 cm (19") tall, 59 cm (23") wide, and 38 cm (15") deep. Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This stool is in an excellent condition, commensurate with its age, and is structurally sound. - As with all vintage & antique furniture there will be signs of use, marks, wear & tear, etc.
