Description

This is a elegant English William IV Old Sheffield silver plate on copper with cut glass centrepiece / candelabra, circa 1830 in date. The central section supporting a cut-glass bowl on a shaped stepped base with scroll decoration, raised on four paw feet. The central knop supporting four numbered reeded branches with acanthus leaf decoration, each with candle sconces, the candle sconces can be exchanged for cut-glass dishes to turn the candelabra into a centrepiece when required. . The attention to detail is absolutely fantastic and it is certain to attract attention wherever placed. Condition: In excellent condition. As an antique item the piece shows signs of use commensurate with age, these minor condition issues are mentioned for accuracy and, as seen in the accompanying photographs, the centrepiece displays beautifully.
