This is a fine quality and original antique English Bentwood coat stand, with a demi-lune design, in the manner of Thonet, from Edwardian period, circa 1920, in good original condition. This Bentwood coat stand, takes the form of a dem-lune (half round) shape allowing it to stand flush against a wall. The top section incorporates a crown of 4-curved "s" shaped double coat hooks above a large central turned column, which is topped with a turned bulbous finial. Further below, the base features a demi-lune ring, which supports umbrellas and sticks. Three curved twin legs support the hallstand firmly on the ground. The Bentwood coat stand is designed to stand against a ...
