Description

Victorian walnut games and sewing table. This Victorian walnut games and sewing table was made circa 1865. The top that swivels and folds open to reveal backgammon and a chess board. Under the burr walnut top there is a fitted velvet lined drawer for cards and sewing tools, and then under this is a sliding box for storing needlework etc. The beautiful top with indent corners, and delicate box inlaid patterns to the corners. It stands on carved cabriole legs that come off the well-turned end supports that are joined by a turned solid walnut stretcher. These tables are superb, as they are not only lovely and interesting items of high-quality Victorian walnut, but also double as games/sewing tables. Imagine owning this also joining friends and family as you play games around it. 69cms wide 27ins 42cms deep 16 1/2ins 71cms high 28ins 84cms open wide 33ins 68.5cms deep open 27ins Whilst we take care in measuring the sizes can be slightly different Delivery UK mainland FREE Other destinations please contact us, and we will get a quote.
