Description

A good quality extendable early 20th century antique pine dining table. The antique dining table has a rectangular shaped top, with two draw leaves to either end. The drawer leaves can be pulled out from underneath to create a larger rectangular shaped surface top. Raised on four square and turned legs, united by a 'H' stretcher support. Finished with a fresh coat of natural wax. Item Ref; M-4686 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 76cm / Width - 137cm / Depth - 90cm / Legroom - 61.5cm / Extended - 213.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks and scratches to the surface top and legs (pictured), this is due to the pine being stripped. The antique dining table remains structurally solid and sound, with the extendable draw leaves working well. Overall, a well proportioned extendable dining table. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item. .
