Description

Superb quality and condition Edwardian oak and white metal mounted games tantalus. The tantalus is made from solid oak with relief carved decoration, original white metal mounts and brass side carrying handles. Retains all three original square hobnail cut decanters with original silver plated decanter labels for Sherry, Brandy and Whisky. The box opens up to reveal a fully fitted games interior with a fully fitted drawer beneath. The box contains two decks of cards, full set of ebony and boxwood draughts, a pair of boxwood dice shakers and dice, a large selection of coloured bone counters, a full set of bone dominoes and a very nice cribbage board. The whole lot is in very good condition with no issues at all. Please note currently there is no folding board for the draughts but this should be fairly easy to find.
