

SA989607

18th Century Engraved Ale Glass Tumbler c1785

Price

Sold*Item Reference: SA989607*Date of manufacture: 1750

Dimensions

Height = 9.7 cm (3.8")

Width = 7.8 cm (3.1")

Description

Technical Description An 18th century engraved Ale glass tumbler. It has a tapered bowl with swags and pendants around the rim. Engraved with the name SARAH BIDE 1775 above a wreath of hops and barley which spreads around the bowl. Ex Chris Crabtree Collection. Date & Origin England, c1785. Condition Excellent, no chips cracks or restoration. Dimensions Height: 9.7cm, Rim diameter: 7.8cm, Foot diameter: 5.7cm Historical Context 1780 saw the birth of Robert Owen in Wales, the businessman and a social reformer credited with becoming one of the founders of socialism and of the cooperative movement. Best known for his association with New Lanark where he became manager in 1800 at the age of only 20. New Lanark became a model for industrial communities that was to spread across the world in the 19th and 20th centuries.

Internal Ref: SG2023050314

Seller Details

Exhibit Antiques

Glasgow Scotland United Kingdom

Tel: 01501 228 282

International Tel: +44 1501 228 282

