Description

A very good, original, Charles II period, dark oak coffer, Circa 1675, of fairly small proportions. This coffer with solid plank hinged top. Carved triple panel front, each panel with carved lozenges. Panelled sides and back. Raised on short through stiles. Lock and escutcheon. Original base. A high quality coffer is in a very good original condition. All the timbers are original with only a lock and escutcheon later additions. Cleaned and waxed and ready to use. Dimensions: This coffer measures approximately 53.5 cm cm (21") tall, 115 cm (45.25") wide, and 54.5 cm (22.5") deep. Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This original coffer is in a very good condition, commensurate with its age, and is structurally very sound and sturdy. Good colour, polish and patina throughout. Some odd and minor marks and blemishes, in keeping with age and use. All the timbers are original, including the base. Lock and escutcheon are later. Part of the catch for the lock from the inside of the lid is absent. A few later screws have been put into the stretcher part of top, likely to secure it. The back top left corner of the top has a small high quali...
