Description

A rare and unusual, George III period, original two section military campaign chest of drawers, Circa 1800. This early campaign chest is constructed in solid teak. With original knob handles, iron carry handles and feet. These early versions don't feature the brass details, flush pull handles and screw off feet that are seen in later chests. These were much more rugged and often made by the shipwrights who constructed the ships these chests were sent on, rather than by cabinet makers. As such these are highly functional pieces and would have seen service, and blessed by the running repairs that a piece used in action would need. Other than a few obvious running repairs, some period inset castors in the feet are the only obvious later addition, but even these could have been added during service. This chest has been through our workshop, and had thorough clean and wax polish. As such is in very good condition and very much ready for use. Dimensions: This chest of drawers measures approximately 104.5 cm (41") tall, 103 cm (40.5") wide (106.5 cm (42") wide including the width of the carry handles), and 44.5 cm (17.5") deep (48 cm (19") deep including the depth of the ...
