Description

A very handsome Edwardian pine Monk's Bench, with a lift up seat and storage inside. In beautiful condition for its age. Believed to come originally from a church in Rugby (Midlands). Wax finished. Would be great for use as shoe storage in a hallway etc... Please note: the seat height at the front is just 15", and it slopes downwards slightly towards the back, so this bench is not high enough to use for sitting at a normal height table. Height: 51.5" (seat height: 15"), width: 38.5", depth at base: 27.5"
