Description

Circa 1910-1940 A well made bendy brass desk lamp with the original iron weighted base and brass shell shade. As shown in the photograph the lamp is 55cm in height and the base is 15cm in diameter. The lower part of the lamp is a fixed column and the well cast links of the upper part enable the lamp to be adjusted to any height or angle. There is a small line on the shade where the lamp may have been knocked - see main photograph. The light is in good condition and has been polished but not lacquered. The price includes postage and packing for the UK mainland only and for outside areas or abroad please contact us for a delivery quote.
