Description

Grand Regency Revival Mahogany Twin Pedestal Dining Table A fantastic solid Mahogany extending table which can seat up to 12 people. We bring to you the most marvellous example of a Regency revival solid Mahogany twin pedestal substantial size table believed to be made around C1900. The table retains its 2 additional leaves which can be added or removed as required to suit the occasion. This table can manage to accommodate from 4 up to comfortably 12 chairs. The table can be used as a formal dining room table and additionally could be useful as 2 Demi-lune tables placed against a wall in a large hall when not in use. The table extends via 6 brass table forks with 2 sliding supporting rails to the underside with location slides on the underside of the D ends. The table tops are fixed to the base via 8 brass headed table screws which thread into the head stock of the base. The fantastic twin pedestals bases comprise of 2 substantial beautifully shaped barrel turned pillars which each descend to 3 sweeping sabre legs culminating to heavy duty Brass toe castors. This lovely table has been through our workshop having the top re-polished meaning the condition is almost flawl...
