Description

This is a superb antique late Victorian satinwood breakfront display cabinet, circa 1880 in date. Oozing sophistication and charm, this cabinet is the absolute epitome of Victorian high society. Its attention to detail and lavish decoration are certain to draw the eye wherever you choose to place it in your home. The entire piece highlights the unique and truly exceptional pattern of the satinwood extremely well. It has masterfully executed walnut crossbanding and line inlaid decoration. The central door opens to reveal a spacious cupboard with a central shelf, the astragal glazed end doors each open to reveal a glass shelf. It has a printed paper label to the verso for Sirl Depositories, Windsor and Ascot. Complete with working locks and key. Condition: In excellent condition having been beautifully restored in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation.
