Description

Antique Triple Fusee Verge Quarter Striking Musical Bracket Clock Asselin London. This stunning Antique bracket clock has a wonderful mahogany and ebonised wood case that has a lovely colour and finish. The case then has a lovely bell top with a beautiful shaped brass carry handle. There is then a lovely this moulding to the top edge which leads to the main body. The main body of the case then has a rectangular shaped with shaped viewing windows to the sides and back which are each framed nicely with a thin, shaped moulding. The front of the case then has two framed fretwork panels to the top edge as well as the front, shaped glass also being framed with mouldings. Finally there is a final moulding to the bottom edge as well as the clock being finished by four round brass feet. The dial is then arched and brass. The dial then has a silvered chapter ring set out in black Roman numerals with a two thin rings marking each minute and every five minutes being marked in Arabic numerals. The dial then has a further silvered ring to the arch marked "STRIKE SILENT" so that the chimes can be turned on and off. There are then a total of six intricately shaped spandrels then se...
