SoldItem Reference: SA991713*Date of manufacture: 1890

Description

A beautiful antique Victorian sterling silver mustard pot which is circular in shape with attractive pierced decoration to the body depicting a dog and birds, a patterned hinged lid with a simple thumb piece and resting on a flat base. This silver mustard pot would make an interesting addition to a collection and would be ideal to use. The blue glass liner sits neatly within the body and remains in excellent condition. The mustard spoon, which was made by George Adams, is also dated for 1881 and matches the mustard pot perfectly. Height: 6.8 cms (2.7") Length: 9.2 cms (3.6") Diameter of body: 6.7 cms (2.6") Weight (without the glass liner): 4.2 troy ounces (132 grams) It was hallmarked in London for 1881 by Aldwinckle & Slater. Complimentary postage is included within the price of this mustard pot. If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact us.
