Description

This is an antique decorative billiard mirror. An English, ebonised pine frame with ceramic snooker scene tiles, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910. Utterly fascinating decorative mirror with superb appeal for fans of cue sports. Displays a desirable aged patina and in very good order. Ebonised pine frame hosts a central mirror and twelve ceramic tiles. Each tile shows a charming billiard or snooker scene with a bright, colourful palette. Quality bevelled mirror plate shows a pleasingly light foxing commensurate with age. Mounted with a pair of small brass loops for ease of hanging. This is an exceptional antique decorative billiard mirror, with twelve colourful scenes of sporting interest. A treat for any room or institution. Delivered waxed, polished and ready to display.
