Description

A fantastic imposing wide Victorian hinged sterling silver cuff with a lovely antique patina. A very wearable piece dating from the 1880s. The bracelet is in very good antique condition; there are a few minor dinks and discolouration across the surface and some very tiny holes and squashed tops to the pyramid shapes at the front but nothing obvious when the piece is worn. See photos. Both the hinge and clasp are in excellent working order, the bangle opens easily when you press and slide the catch, and clicks shut securely. Size: Internal circumference is approx seven inches (just short of 18cm); the width not including the silver balls along the edge is 3.2cm. Weight: 48.1g.
