Description

This is an antique Yoruba chief's stool. A West African, Benin Kingdom hardwood ceremonial lamp or side table, dating to the late 19th century, circa 1900. Striking example of West African tribal craftsmanship. Displays a desirable aged patina - minor natural split to top adding to the character. Naïve hand-carved hardwood presents dark russet hues. Ovoid top with thick rolled edge sitting above the whole. Pair of supporting figures stand alongside a distinctive, smiling leopard. Standing upon a hollowed circular base with gently chamfered edges. This is a delightful antique Yoruba stool. Wonderfully hand-carved and lending itself to being an unusual lamp or side table for the home. Delivered waxed, polished and ready to enjoy.
