Description

A lovely late Victorian oak and brass stick stand by Jas Shoolbred & Co of London. Bearing makers label and registration number. Offered for sale in very good condition, with a nice colour, ready to go straight into the home. Dimensions: Width 55cms Depth 24cms Height 95cms James Shoolbred & Co The name of James Shoolbred & Co is highly respected among admirers of Aesthetic Movement furniture. Their antique desks, Victorian dining chairs and antique marquetry furniture were produced for wealthy households up to 1931. A particularly fine example of James Shoolbred antique marquetry furniture – an ornate piano by designer Henry Batley – is on display at the V & A museum, London. Established in the 1820s, James Shoolbred's Tottenham Court Road company began life as a drapers. It began supplying textiles to the furniture trade, and expanded into the stores either side, branching into interior design. By the 1870s, the company was designing and manufacturing its own furniture. A major factor of James Shoolbred's success was their detailed catalogues, which were published from around 1873. Configured to showcase the company's designs beyond the confines of London, they made...
