Description

1 Fine Large Antique Victorian 19th Century British Work of Art Oil Painting Marine Rigged Brigg Ship Susannah Thrift With Pilot St Nicholas. Subject seascape marine portrait of the known British Brigg ship Susannah Thrift in full sail with her pilot ship St Nicholas guiding her in to port, portrayed in side profile sailing along facing towards the right side in rough choppy seas. With sea waves crashing around the side hull of the ship. The British Union Jack flag and red ensign flags can be seen hoisted on the stern masts. With mainly clear blue sky above with dark storm clouds showing towards the corner overhead. To the far right towards the bow of the ship you can view the vessels name on the side and sailor figures shown on deck. to the flank on far right side in the distance views of a tall sail ship at anchor with a smaller sized ship further along, inbetween is a windmill along with many other buildings shown on the shoreline. On the other flank far left is the red pilot ship St Nicholas, further back with retreating high cliff coastline. Such a fascinating nautical scene. Title "Susannah Thrift square rigged brigg off the coast with pilot Ship St Nicholas" ...
