Description

This is an antique gentleman's walking stick. An English, coromandel and silver cane with hallmarks, dating to the Edwardian period, 1904. A dashing cane, ideally suited to the discerning Flâneur or a walk along a promenade. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order. Exotic coromandel shows rich caramel hues and fine grain interest. Hallmarked silver handle cap with an appealing, light weathering. Distinctive ribbed finish to the shaft, elegantly turning into the handle. Set at a comfortable height, the handle stands at 98cm (38.5"). Maker's initial for BJ, with the Lion Passant and London's Leopard assay mark. Further hallmarked with the date letter I, for 1904. This is an attractive antique gentleman's walking stick, with a quality finish and distinctive appearance. Delivered waxed, polished and ready to enjoy.
