Description

A stunning little sterling silver visiting card case with with a highly decorative shape and absolutely stunning engraved work. It is wonderful that it comes complete with it's original leather presentation box lined in blue velvet and kept shut with two small brass catches to one side. The case has a good clear English hallmark for Birmingham 1849, so nice early example. The makers initials are also present T & P For Joseph Taylor and John Perry, the Queen Victoria's head mark is also present, always a highly desirable feature to piece of period silver. The front has a very decorative engraved initial within a cartouche, I believe T W. Superb condition, measuring 3 1/4" x 2".
