Description

A really pretty bow fronted side table that would go anywhere - hall, in a bedroom as a dressing table, downstairs as a writing table etc. It is a good height as which to sit as the height of the table is 74.5cm. It has a well figured top above a full width drawer with original brass handles. The front square tapering legs are reeded at the front. There is pretty stringing around the bottom of the top. The max depth in the centre is 50cm. At the sides it is 43cm. A good looking and useful period piece.
